

What is Mobility Management?

Designing and delivering transportation services that starts, and ends, with the customer. It begins with a community vision in which the entire transportation network - public transit, private operators, cycling and walking, volunteer driver, and others - work together with customers, planners, and stakeholders to deliver the transportation options that best meet the community's needs.

Jeff Schmelzer Mobility Manager

- 📍 108 W. Main St, Ste C,
Lancaster, Ohio 43130
- ☎ (740) 652-5976
- ✉ mobility@fairfieldcounty211.org

Transportation is a critical component of the communities in Fairfield County

Getting you where you need to go.

Why is Mobility Management Important?

Mobility Management helps provide access to jobs, education, and health care while allowing community members to live independently and engage in community life.

Goals in Fairfield County

-  Assist individuals with accessing all community transportation options
-  Increase awareness of community transportation needs
-  Build sustainable and healthy communities by integrating transportation into planning and programming

Roles in Fairfield County

Inform and Connect

Empathize and Advocate

Convene and Facilitate

Design and Plan

Launch and Sustain

What is Mobility Management? Part 1

